Fun Birthday Facts — Discover What Happened on Your Special Day!

By: Birthday Boy Bill Gough

Ever wonder what happened on the day you were born?

Your birthday isn't just a celebration of you — it's a day woven into history, pop culture, and world events. Whether it's a famous birth, a historic milestone, or the start of a life-changing invention, discovering these fun facts can add a meaningful (and sometimes quirky) twist to your special day.

My birthday for example — June 1st. On this date:

- Anne Boleyn was crowned Queen of England (1533)
- Actress Marilyn Monroe was born (1926)
- Actor Morgan Freeman was born (1937)
- Activist Helen Keller passed away (1968)- I remember reading about this the day I turned 8 years old
- The Heimlich maneuver was introduced (1974)
- CNN became the first 24-hour cable news network (1980)

Pretty interesting, right?

To find out what happened on your birthday, try a quick search using trusted sites like:

- www.history.com – Their "This Day in History" section is full of fascinating events.
- www.onthisday.com – Browse by date for historical events, celebrity birthdays, and notable deaths.
- www.thepeoplehistory.com – Great for trends, prices, and cultural tidbits from your birth year.
- Ask ChatGPT! Just type something like, "What happened on May 10, 1975?" and get a list curated for you in seconds.

These birthday deep dives are not only fun to share with family and friends or post on social media — they can become a unique tradition, helping you feel connected to the bigger story of our world.

So next year, don't just eat cake — uncover your birthday's legacy!

The Back Page Bubbles 2025 Monthly Secret Contest Win a FREE Month Of Car Washing or a BIG Screen TV

By: Bill Gough

In April's Bubble Up Newsletter, I had a little extra space and added a question about Bubbles. We decided 3 customers would a month of FREE Car Washing to their primary car. We threw all the correct answers in a spreadsheet and pulled out 3 winners.

The response was so good we did it again in May and response was even better, so we've decided to continue until the end of the year, plus have a grand prize give away in December.

How it works: Each month will be a question here on back page about Bubbles Car Wash and all correct answers will be entered into a drawing. We will pull 3 winners of 1 FREE month of car washing to your primary car each month until the end of the year.

The grand prize in December will be a BIG SCREEN TV which will make someone's Christmas a little merrier.

If you are not a monthly winner you still have a chance to win the GRAND Prize because all correct answers count all year as one entry to the GRAND Prize in December.

For example, if you correctly answer April – November's back page question you will have 8 entries into the Grand prize drawing the first week of December.

SECRET CONTEST QUESTION: What 3 cities are the Bubbles Express Car Washes located in? Email your answer to info@bubblesexpresscarwash.com

3 names will be drawn from all correct answers, and they will each win a month of FREE car washing to their primary car.
